

CRIMINAL JUSTICE PARTNERSHIP ADVISORY BOARD

The Union County Criminal Justice Partnership Program Advisory Board (CJPPAB) was formed under the auspices of the Union County Board of Commissioners to develop and implement local community-based corrections program in accordance with the provisions of the North Carolina General Statute 143B, Article 6A.

Duties: The Criminal Justice Partnership Advisory Board shall review and revise the annual implementation grant and make formal recommendations to the Union County Board of Commissioners at least annually concerning the grant and its implementation and operation for the ensuing year. The Advisory Board shall continuously monitor and evaluate Union County's community-based corrections program.

MEMBERSHIP: The Advisory Board shall consist of not fewer than ten members and shall, to the greatest extent possible, include:

- (a) a county commissioner;
- (b) the County Manager or his designee;
- (c) a Judge of the Superior Court
- (d) a Judge of the District Court
- (e) the district attorney or his designee;
- (f) a criminal defense attorney
- (g) a public defender;
- (h) the county sheriff or his designee;
- (i) the chief of a city police department or his designee;
- (j) a probation officer;
- (k) a community service coordinator;
- (l) one member selected from each of the following service areas which are available in the county: mental health, public health, substance abuse, employment and training; community-based corrections; victims' services programs;
- (m) a member of the business community;
- (n) a member of the community who has been a victim of crime; members at large, including persons who are recovering from chemical dependency or are previous consumers of substance abuse treatment services.

The members shall serve three-year staggered terms. Members appointed by virtue of their office serve only while holding office or position held at the time of their appointment. A vacancy occurring before the expiration of the term shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments for the remainder of the term. Members may be re-appointed without limitation.
