News Release

Veterans: Beware of Schemes

February 25, 2013, Monroe, NC – The Union County Veterans Service Office is warning veterans and their families about schemes that could affect their pensions.

The Federal Trade Commission recently published an article regarding agencies who charge fees for their services to assist veterans filing for pension. The Union County Veterans Service Office assists with that application process, free of charge. Any veteran, who served one day during a period of war, 90 days of active duty, and meet income and asset guidelines set by Veterans Affairs, may be eligible to file.

Please call 704-283-3807 for more information.
